

APOSTROPHE OF CONTRACTION (using not)

- An apostrophe looks like this ' .
- An apostrophe of contraction makes two words (can and not) join together into one word (can't)
- One or more letters from the words are taken out and the apostrophe is put in place of the missing letter(s) can not → can't

Draw a line to match up the contractions with their words can not wouldn't do not didn't

does not couldn't

will not shouldn't

did not can't could not doesn't

would not don't should not won't

APOSTROPHE OF CONTRACTION (using not)

Read the sentences and underline the contraction in each one

- 1) I can't do my homework because it is too hard.
- 2) I don't want to do my homework.
- 3) She doesn't like doing her homework.
- 4) I didn't do my homework yesterday because I was playing with my friends.
- 5) I won't do my homework until my mum tells me to.
- 6) I couldn't do my homework because I was too tired
- 7) I wouldn't do my homework at all if I had a choice.
- 8) I shouldn't have to do any homework because I got full marks for the test.

APOSTROPHE OF CONTRACTION (using not)

can't

don't doesn't didn't

won't couldn't wouldn't shouldn't

Make a sentence with each contraction

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....