

MODAL VERB 'can'

- Modal verbs are verbs that help another verb express something
- 'Can' is a modal verb which expresses the ability to do something
- The opposite of 'can' is 'can not' or 'can't' which means no ability to do something

Underline the modal and main verb in each sentence

- 1) I can eat my lunch in the dinner hall.
- 2) He can't do his homework by himself
- 3) She can play chess with her friends.
- 4) You can't see your teacher in the staffroom.
- 5) We can leave the classroom at 4 O'clock.
- 6) They can't wait for a parcel to arrive because they're going out.
- 7) It can rain any time during the day.
- 8) I can't visit the museum on my own.

MODAL VERB 'can'

Answers

Underline the modal and main verb in each sentence

- 1) I can eat my lunch in the dinner hall.
- 2) He can't do his homework by himself
- 3) She can play chess with her friends.
- 4) You can't see your teacher in the staffroom.
- 5) We can leave the classroom at 4 O'clock.
- 6) They can't wait for a parcel to arrive because they're going out.
- 7) It can rain any time during the day.
- 8) I can't visit the museum on my own.

