

STATEMENT, QUESTION or EXCLAMATION

- Statements tell you about something
- Questions ask something
- Exclamations show strong feelings (happy, excited, angry, surprised)

Add 3 full stops for statements, 3 question marks for questions and 3 exclamation marks for exclamations

- 1) The boy is sad
- 2) Where is the park
- 3) Help
- 4) Your bike is green
- 5) I love the park
- 6) Why are some roads very wide
- 7) Her hair is long
- 8) When does she brush her hair
- 9) That's fantastic

STATEMENT, QUESTION or EXCLAMATION

Answers

- 1) The boy is sad.
- 2) Where is the park?
- 3) Help!
- 4) Your bike is green.
- 5) I love the park!
- 6) Why are some roads very wide?
- 7) Her hair is long.
- 8) When does she brush her hair?
- 9) That's fantastic!

STATEMENT, QUESTION or EXCLAMATION

- Statements tell you about something (end with a full stop)
- Questions ask something (end with a question mark)
- Exclamations show strong feelings (end with an exclamation mark)

Write 3 statements

- 1) .....
- 2) .....
- 3) .....

Write 3 questions

- 1) .....
- 2) .....
- 3) .....

Write 3 exclamations

- 1) .....
- 2) .....
- 3) .....